

I do not want to hear telemarketers on the other end of my phone line. They are very disruptive, sometimes sarcastic and very determined to speak to someone. I have enjoyed the peace and quiet of their not interrupting my day, please keep it that way. If they want to solicit their business have them do it threw the USPS.